The image shows a 6x10 grid of 60 empty 4x4 dashed boxes. Each box is defined by a blue outline and contains a 4x4 grid of blue dashed lines. The grid is intended for handwriting practice, specifically for the letter 'o'. There are two rows of six boxes each, with a small gap between the second and third row.

A horizontal row of eight empty 4x4 grids, each consisting of a 4x4 grid of small squares. The grids are separated by thin vertical lines.

The image shows a horizontal row of five identical 3x3 square grids. Each grid has a dashed horizontal and vertical line intersecting at its center. In the bottom right corner of each grid, there is a large blue question mark.

The image shows five separate square boxes arranged horizontally. Each box has a dashed center line and is enclosed by a blue border. The boxes are intended for children to draw or write in.

Three empty blue-outlined boxes for drawing.

The image shows five separate 3x3 grid boxes, each consisting of a solid black border and a dashed gray grid inside. These grids are intended for children to draw their own shapes or patterns.

Four empty 4x4 grids for drawing, each consisting of a dashed outer square and a dashed inner square.
